Dave Eichler

MANAGING PARTNER

Dave joined Psilos in 1999 and brings over 18 years of healthcare experience as a venture investor, board member, and advisor on strategy, corporate development, financial restructuring and capital raising transactions. From 2005-2007, he also served as Chief Financial Officer of Caregiver Services, a Psilos portfolio company. Prior to joining Psilos, Dave was an investment banker at Wasserstein Perella & Co., where he worked on M&A and restructuring assignments as a member of the firm's Healthcare Group. Earlier in his career, he worked as a defense policy analyst for DynCorp, focusing on issues relating to nuclear nonproliferation and export control.

Dave represented Psilos on the board of Acuity Pharmaceuticals (exited via merger with Opko Health) and Mauna Kea Technologies [NYSE Euronext: MKEA]. He was also closely involved in Psilos' investment in QualityMetric (exited via acquisition by UnitedHealth Group), where he served as a board observer. Currently he serves as Chairman of the Board of Caregiver Services and Gamma Medica, and as a board observer of PatientSafe Solutions.

Dave earned an MBA from the Darden Graduate School of Business Administration at the University of Virginia, where he received the Faculty Award for Academic Excellence (top 10% of class). He holds another masters degree in National Security Studies from Georgetown University and a B.A. in Government and International Relations from Cornell University, where he graduated magna cum laude.
